

Sessions	Facilitator to participant transition.	Circle of Courage Values
January Activity Sessions Planning meetings Circle of Courage training -How to run activities Activity Days Review meeting	Facilitators have responsibility for planning most aspects of the activity day. Youth Support workers -share their ideas in planning activities -work alongside facilitators to run the activities on the day. -focus on creating connections between participants	Courage, Belonging Generosity
April Activity Sessions Planning meetings Training -Confidentiality -Boundaries -Managing difficult behaviours Activity days Review meeting	Youth Support Workers: -plan activities in consultation with facilitators. -run the activities on the day with facilitator providing overall group management.	Belonging, Generosity
July Activity sessions Planning meetings Training -Team work -Group facilitation Activity days Review meeting	Youth Support Workers: -promote City of Courage alongside facilitators.	Mastery Independence
September Activity Sessions Planning meetings Training -Anxiety & Depression - Circle of Courage Activity days Review meeting	Youth Support Workers: -determine and plan activities -make bookings -Independently promote the City of Courage and seek registrations. -manage basic budget -prepare resources -purchase and prepare food -conduct activities on the day -manage overall group facilitation -provide initial response to individual participant issues -refer individual issues to facilitators when required Facilitators responsible for overall co-ordination of registrations. Facilitators review the planning of Youth Support Workers to ensure they have considered all factors and requirements.	Courage Mastery Independence Generosity